

VENDOR APPLICATION

Ogden's Historic 25th Street and Union Station are hosting the first annual festival of witches "Witchstock" on Saturday, October 23, 2010. The night will be filled with thousands of witches celebrating a witches night out by taking part in ghost tours, attending a witch's tea party, having their fortunes told and partying in the street, all the while having fun dining, shopping, dancing and more!

The party begins at 3:00pm. Vendors will be placed in locations outdoors on Historic 25th Street and will be required to be open for business from 3:00pm until 8:00pm. Fees are $40 which includes the Ogden City Special Event $5.00 license. Fees do not include health department permit fees required for food vendors. Vendors will be assigned a location but must provide all supplies necessary to set up a booth. Canopies are recommended. Set up time will be at 1:30pm with all vehicles required to be off the street no later than 2:30, one half hour prior to festival opening at 3:00pm. Festival will run into evening hours where lighting may be required. Electricity will not be provided. Vendors are encouraged to utilize solar powered lights and/or battery operated lights.
